

EARNEST ENTHUSIASTIC CROWD HEARD ISSUES OF CAMPAIGN DISCUSSED

Hiram W. Johnson, Candidate for Nomination for Governor, Discusses Great Principle at Stake

"We are not seeking to run the Southern Pacific, only to put it out of politics," Hiram W. Johnson, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, told an audience that filled Bank Hall at Fullerton last night. The first meeting of the Lincoln-Roosevelt forces in that city brought out one of the largest and most enthusiastic audiences in the political history of the community.

"This year the people of California are to have their first opportunity to select their own nominees," he said, "and we are here to ask them to make use of their opportunity. We are coming direct to the people. The whole question is with whom and in whom the government of the state rests."

"Our warfare is not against corporations, but against successful dishonesty. The Southern Pacific must take its dirty hands out of politics."

Johnson's sincere, straight-from-the-shoulder address was the feature of the meeting last night at Fullerton. He was roundly applauded. The audience was characterized by earnestness and fairness.

Judge F. F. Oster of San Bernardino, candidate for the nomination for appellate judge, stated when he had been introduced that he would not talk politics. He discussed the primary law at length, giving to his hearers a clearer idea than they had ever had of it. Judge Oster said that the law had its defects. In fact, the enemies of the law caused objectionable features to be inserted in it that it might be made unpopular and thus be done away with. However, the law is what the people want, and instead of being done away with the next step will be to do away with the objectionable features and make of the law a weapon in the hands of the people such as they have never before had. As it is it is far better than the old convention method.

A candidate who had not been on the tour appeared at the meeting at Fullerton. He was Florence J. O'Brien, candidate for secretary of state. In a forceful manner he pictured to the audience the manner in which political Espies bosses had handled conventions that had come under his notice.

A. J. Wallace, candidate for the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor, Judge John D. Works, for United States senator, and John

TRIAL OF BRIBERY CASE BEGUN TODAY

Brown's Attorneys Try to Quash Case—Attorney Will Re-indict if Quashed

CHICAGO, May 24.—The trial of Lee O'Neil Brown, the house leader of the Illinois legislature charged with bribery in connection with the election of United States Senator Lorimer, began today.

The defense attorneys moved to quash the indictment. The motion was based on technical grounds. District Attorney Wayman, conducting the investigation, declared that he will re-indict Brown if the indictment is quashed.

LOS ANGELES, May 24.—Joseph Murphy, deputy sheriff, was found dead in Eagles Hall early today by a Japanese porter. He had a bullet wound in his mouth and a revolver in his hand. The bullet had blown its way through the brain.

Coroner Hartwell immediately ordered an investigation. There was a peculiar absence of powder burns on the mouth and face. The revolver in the hand was not clutched tightly. The police are investigating.

ESTRADA FORCES ARE INTRECEPTED

Madriz Rushes Between Bluefields and Rebels—Ending of Revolution Foreseen

BLUEFIELD, May 24.—Reports that Gen. Estrada's revolutionary forces have been hemmed in by the army of Madriz is causing great excitement. A messenger says that a thousand government soldiers have cut the revolutionists off from Bluefield.

The Madrizites are encamped between the rebels and this city near Ranthis. The possibility of a speedy ending of the revolution is the topic of general discussion.

NIAGARAGAN MATTERS

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 24.—The charge that the United States broke a blockade established by a friendly power was implied in a resolution introduced in the senate today by Stone of Missouri, asking that the state department cite its authority for ordering the Nicaraguan gunboat Venus to leave the port of Bluefield, where a blockade was declared by President Madriz.

The resolution, it is declared, will bring the state department's action in Nicaraguan affairs before congress and the question of American intervention in the revolution will be discussed.

NEGROES AND WHITES
KILLED IN RACE RIOT

POGOLUSA, Okla., May 24.—Three negroes and two whites were killed and a score injured in a race riot following a negro picnic here today. A quarrel between a negro and a white caused the trouble.

Clouds Obscure Eclipse of Moon

COMET IN IT'S GLORY

Astronomers on Mount Wilson
Saw Splendid Spectacle in Dimmed Colors

THOUSANDS IN VALLEYS
DEEPLY DISAPPOINTED

Last Chance to See Sky Marvels as Double Event Will Not Come in Ages

MT. WILSON OBSERVATORY, May 24.—In providing a fortunate eclipse of the moon on the date when conditions for the observation of Halley's comet were most auspicious, astronomers forgot to league themselves with the weather man. An army of filmy clouds marshaled between the moon and the comet and the mountain top observers last night, and through them the sky vantage glowed but dimly during the dark of the moon.

Despite the array of vapors the sight was magnificent as the moon dimmed and grew reddish in the earth's shadow, Jupiter became brilliant, shining in the comet's path as if it gathered radiance from the whitish glare of the streamer. The nucleus of the comet lay a little south of a direct line drawn between Procyon and Pollux, the tail extending between Regulus, in the constellation of the Lion, to Jupiter. The nucleus resembled a diffused star as brilliant, even through the haze, as a star of the first magnitude. Its glow was a silver sheen through the vapors constantly crossing it.

Owing to the fact that clouds made impossible scientific observations there has been no other confirmation of the existence of a bifurcated tail on the comet.

Thousands of waiting people in the valleys, who had been looking almost breathlessly for the marvelous event of the eclipse of the moon and the full brilliancy of Halley's comet, were bitterly disappointed when their hopes were dashed by the clouded skies, that utterly prevented a sight of the marvels that were taking place beyond them, and which cannot be expected again by the present generations. Science tells us that an eclipse of the moon during the transit of a comet of any magnitude through the evening sky will not occur again for ages.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 24.—Mrs. Helen Boyle, now under prison sentence of 25 years for complicity in kidnapping little Willie Whittle of Sharon, Pa., promises to make startling disclosures in the case if she is granted the new trial for which she is asking. ## SEVERAL WHO PREFER BEING LEFT OUT WERE HEARD TODAY

Eight objectors to being included in the proposed Newport Drainage District have filed their objections with the Board of Supervisors, and seven of them were heard by the board this morning. The hearing was continued to June 2, at which time the eighth objector will be heard and the supervisors will visit the district to determine whether or not the petitions will be granted.

The district petitioners ask for a district of 3000 acres, the canal to empty into the Talbert system.

The objectors are: A. T. Armstrong, 15 acres; J. S. Rice, 100 acres; City of Santa Ana, 80 acres; Santa Ana Acres, 80 acres; Jonathan Harmon, 74 acres; Tarver Montgomery, 43 acres; E. W. Harmon, 6 acres; Clyde Morris, 23 acres. Ransom Reid, superintendent of the Santa Ana sewer system, appeared for the city, saying that the lands of the city proposed to be included in the district do not need drainage. Attorney Montgomery was on hand for the last five objectors. Attorney

Senate to Probe Police Methods Of This Country

MAYS LANDING, N. J., May 24.—The prosecution in the east of William Seyler, charged with the murder of Jane Adams, aged 19, on Young's Pier, Atlantic City, rested its case today.

Seyler will be the principal witness in his own defense. He will repudiate the "signed statement" concerning the affair, which he declares the detectives forced him to sign. The "third degree," as administered to Seyler, has aroused such a storm of protest that the United States Senate investigated the affair, and decided to order a general investigation of police methods throughout the country.

The strongest evidence against Seyler during the trial was the testimony of the doctors that the girl died as the result of a blow of the fist. She was last seen alive with Seyler on the pier.

BOMB THROWN AND WORSHIPPERS DIE

Spanish Cities Terrorized—
Attempt on King's Life is Now Feared

CAIRANZA, Spain, May 24.—Three were killed and sixteen injured in a bomb explosion in a church here today where the killed and injured were worshipping.

The authorities have learned that the bomb was composed of explosives similar to those of the bomb that killed one and injured several in Madrid recently. The similarity in bombs has led the police to fear an impending reign of anarchy.

Madrid, May 24.—The police here are making every effort to prevent the spread of anarchistic trouble prevalent in Barcelona, Seville and Madrid. They fear an attempt will be planned on the life of the King.

STEAMER WAS RAMMED AND WENT DOWN IN LAKE

Goodyear Sunk by Collision
With Wood—Eighteen of Crew Drown

LITTLE KNOWN OF CAUSE;
CREW REFUSES TO TALK

Dense Fog Prevailed—Wood
Stayed by and Rescued Few of Fated Steamer

CLEVELAND, May 24.—Eighteen of the twenty-three members of the crew of the steamer Frank H. Goodyear drowned when the vessel collided with the steamer James B. Wood. The Wood tore a great hole in the Goodyear's side, the latter sinking immediately.

The collision occurred off Port Barques, Lake Huron. The Wood was also damaged, but managed to make port today. The crew refused to discuss the accident except to state that the collision occurred in a heavy fog. The majority of the dead lived at Algona, Michigan.

Among the known dead are: Mrs. T. H. Bassett and daughter, of Marine City, Mich. The steamer William Seamans was close at hand at the time of the wreck. It is believed she rescued several passengers. She is en route for Sault Ste. Marie, and was due this afternoon.

Beyond the statement that eighteen were drowned, the crew of the steamer James B. Wood, which has arrived at Port Huron, refuse to comment on the wreck of the steamer Goodyear, which collided with the Wood off Port Barques. Captain Heminger of the Goodyear, the steward, Frank Bassett, and his mother, Mrs. Emma Bassett, Engineer Wm. Grant, Fireman Frank Mollock, and the wheelman were rescued and brought to Port Huron. The Wood remained at the scene of the wreck for several hours searching for possible survivors.

The steward's three-year-old son was knocked from his arms by the waves and drowned. The Goodyear was rammed in the middle and sank immediately. Members of the crew in the messroom had no chance of escape.

COUNTERFEITS IN CITY OF ANGELS

Daring Criminals Pose as Rich
Stock Men—Flood City
With Bad Money

LOS ANGELES, May 24.—Posing as rich cattle dealers from Yuma, Ariz., five daring counterfeiters invaded the wholesale and retail districts yesterday, and with unusual boldness—apparently without any fear of detection—succeeded in placing a number of forged bank notes in circulation. In an effort to learn the exact amount of spurious money passed three banks made a search of all currency received yesterday, and at 12 o'clock it was estimated that at least $1000 of the forged notes had been exchanged during the day for legal tenders.

TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION OFFICERS RE-ELECTED

Lynch of Syracuse, has been re-elected president of the International Typographical Union according to returns received today from nearly six hundred in seven hundred unions. George A. Fennessy of Los Angeles, the trustees of the Union Printers Home at Colorado Springs and all national officers are believed to have been re-elected.

IS ROOSEVELT ONE OF INSURGENTS?

Alexandria said
Grateful Words
to Col. Roosevelt

LONDON, May 24.—Dowager Queen Alexandria today received Col. Roosevelt in the throne room of Buckingham Palace and thanked him for the sympathy expressed by Americans on the death of King Edward. She received Lord Strathcona and Ambassador Reid at the same time.

Col. Roosevelt today decided not to reply to the letter of the British Humanitarian Society charging that the African hunt was a big game butchery. "Anyone studying the records of my hunt," he said, "will see that they bear me out in the statement that we only killed for science and other definite purposes. I have always been opposed to the indiscriminate killing of wild animals."

Col. Roosevelt and his son Kermit were together for the greater part of the day. After a motor trip they overhauled the specimens of the hunt that are being mounted by British taxidermists.

A KNOCKOUT BLOW FOR TARIFF BOARD

Appropriation for Board Was Cut Out of Civil Sundry Appropriations

WASHINGTON, May 24.—The appropriation for the tariff board was knocked from the civil sundry appropriation bill today. Representative Mann, acting as chairman of the house as committee of the whole, sustained a point of order made by Fitzgerald against the Tawney amendment providing an appropriation giving the president a free hand in directing the work of the existing tariff board.

The point of order was argued for two hours before the ruling was made. Representative Morris appealed from the ruling but the house sustained the chairman by an overwhelming vote. Towney offered another amendment covering the same ground, but the chairman declared it out of order.

DEWEY DRY DOCK SHORT OF WATER

and Costly Dock Goes Down
In Subig Bay

MANILA, May 24.—The drydock, "Dewey," the largest floating drydock of the American navy, sank seventy feet in the water at Olongape, on Subig Bay. The valves were left open in a mysterious manner, and the water rushed in.

The dock cost one million dollars, and was large enough to accommodate vessels of the Dreadnaught type. While the Dewey is out of commission the warships of the Orient must use the Kowloon, China, drydock. The Dewey was built at Starrow's Point, Maryland, and was installed at Olongape in 1906. The government was compelled to pay $40,000 damage sustained to the gates of the Suez canal when the drydock was taken through them en route to Manila.

FIGHTERS CLAIM HIM AS AN ALLY

Declare He Took His Stand
With Them on Eve of Leaving
White House

LETTERS SENT HIM WHILE
HE WAS ON AFRICAN HUNT

He is Said to Have Urged Taft
to Aid Them in Their Fight Against Cannon

WASHINGTON, May 24.—That Theodore Roosevelt is with the insurgents heart and soul, is the gist of a hitherto unpublished report made by a committee of insurgents to a caucus of the House progressives in March, 1909. It is rumored here that the insurgents expect to make Roosevelt's stand a feature of their coming campaign. It is reported that the endorsement was given to Representatives Nelson of Wisconsin, Madison of Kansas, and Gardiner of Massachusetts, when sent as a committee to secure Roosevelt's endorsement of insurgency.

The report stated that on March 3, 1909, Roosevelt proposed to give Nelson a letter endorsing the fight made by the insurgents on Cannon and the House rules. He expressed thorough sympathy with the insurgent movement, saying: "Cannon has been the greatest obstacle in my efforts to secure good legislation."

On March 4, after consultation with President Taft, Roosevelt asked the insurgents to excuse him from writing a formal letter incorporating these views, on the ground that such a letter might embarrass the new administration. Standing in the President's room in the Senate wing of the White House, Roosevelt shook Representatives Gardner and Nelson's hands, according to the report, then turned to President Taft and urged him to espouse the insurgents' cause. This was one of his last acts during his administration.

Since visiting the insurgent committee, Roosevelt has not discussed politics. It is learned authoritatively, however, that the insurgents have kept in close touch with the Colonel since then. Letter after letter was sent to Africa by insurgent leaders. Many of them have been answered, but the answers are carefully guarded. These letters, it is reported, accounted for the surprising knowledge of political occurrences that Roosevelt displayed when he returned from Africa, which prevented him from falling into the pitfalls laid by the newspapers.

Registration for the primary election closes July 27, and for the general election September 28. To be entitled to vote, you must be an American citizen, a resident of the state one year, of the county ninety days, and of the precinct where you vote thirty days at the time of the election. If you move from one precinct to another within the county, you can transfer your registration at any time up to October 13.

It is necessary to be registered in order to vote at either election or to sign a petition for a candidate to get his name on the ballot. The primary election will be held in separate boxes for the Republican, Democratic and other parties, and each voter has only one ballot, so he can vote in only one of these boxes. He may choose which box he will vote in, but he must make that choice in advance and have it recorded with his registration. Each voter determines for himself in which primary he will vote, and is responsible to his conscience for the motives of that choice. He is under no legal obligation to vote at the election for the nominees of the party at whose primaries he votes, but as a matter of good faith he should have a general intention of voting for the majority of them. The Lincoln-Roosevelt League candidates are Republicans, running for the Republican nominations. The only place to vote for them is in the Republican box, and the only way to vote in that box is to register for the Republican primary.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER

WASHINGTON, May 24.—If the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy were being tried before the audience which regularly attends the hearings, instead of a sedate congressional committee, the chances are there would be rare hairpulling.

Hairpulling is the correct term, for fully 90 per cent of the "regulars" at the hearing are women. They are the most violent of partisans, and do not halt at expressing their opinions audibly. Wherefore Chairman Nelson has been dragged into a feminine fuss.

Mrs. Ballinger, wife of the Secretary, has been a fairly regular attendant at the hearings, occupying a seat in the front row just next to the press table. Mrs. Pinchot, mother of the former forester, who is of course on the opposite side of the controversy, generally occupies a seat in the row just behind Mrs. Ballinger. Each of these ladies is surrounded by a group of adherents.

One day recently Mrs. Humphrey, wife of the congressman from Washington, and a personal friend of Mrs.

"WAY DOWN SOUTH IN THE LAND OF COTTON."

The South may well lay claim to the title "Land of Cotton." In the southern part of the United States nearly fourteen million bales of cotton are produced each year, out of a total world crop of twenty million bales.

The production of Cotton Seed Oil shows even a larger percentage in favor of the South, as methods of extracting and crushing the seed, and refining the oil, have been brought to a perfection not attained in other lands.

Considerable Cotton Seed Oil goes into the manufacture of Cottoleone, a vegetable oil cooking fat which is winning favor not only on its merits as a frying and shortening medium but because of its purity and wholesomeness.

Lard is in origin, unpleasant; in method of manufacture uncertain and often uncleanly. Cottoleone is as clean and wholesome and genuine as the far famed hospitality of the "Sunny South."

Ballinger, went to Chairman Nelson with the complaint that the comments of the women in the Pinchot camp were "perfectly disgusting and dreadfully annoying" to Mrs. Ballinger. Not fifteen minutes after this complaint, Senator Nelson had a visit from one of Mrs. Pinchot's friends, declaring that the audible comments of those with Mrs. Ballinger were "abhorrent and annoying" to the mother of the former forester.

Senator Nelson had to admit that he couldn't control the ladies and that he had a hard enough time presiding over the committee, as it was.

So it happens that the newspaper men, who sit at a table just at the end of the two rows occupied by the rival camps, bear the brunt of the hostile feeling. The wife of another cabinet officer was with Mrs. Ballinger one day recently. She was anxious that the newspaper men should chronicle the fact that she was present, and as a devoted adherent of the Ballinger cause. She transmitted that message to the nearest newspaper man, while the Pinchot supporters glared and sneered. They had no cabinet officer's wife with them, and consequently, were greatly miffed.

But when the said cabinet officer's wife insisted upon criticizing the newspaper men because they whispered occasionally, there was great joy among the Pinchotites. One of the newspaper men declared audibly in reply that he had to be present, but the lady didn't. The wife of the cabinet officer threatened the newspaper men with the name of her husband, but it didn't work.

But it was the Ballinger supporters' turn to grin when one of the Pinchot adherents persisted in whispering to one harassed newspaper worker, criticizing his "stories" as being colored to suit the Ballinger side.

So far the honors are even, but the feeling is intense. There may be a hairpulling contest almost any day.

Senator Nelson is worried by complaints from both sides. It was suggested by one member of the committee that the thing to do would be to range one group on one side of the room and the other safely on the farther side. Senator Nelson said he would take the matter under advisement.

"Divorce Uncle Sam from the liquor business by ratifying the income tax amendment and applying the receipts from that source to take the place of the internal revenue taxes."

This is the scheme which "Lafe" Pence, orator, capitalist, student of political economy and former representative from Colorado, is booming. He started the ball rolling by securing an endorsement of the plan from the conference of the Christian church of Pittsburg, and now he is in the midst of a campaign to put his idea before the country.

Pence wants the states to ratify the income tax amendment to the constitution and then go on record as favoring the abolishment of the present internal revenue taxes on liquor. He declared that this will solve the question of the rights of the states in dealing with the liquor problem. Pence argues this way:

"The internal revenue taxes on liquor were levied originally away back in the reconstruction period after the Civil war. It was intended to replenish a depleted treasury. When enacted, the idea was to make the taxes only temporary. President Lincoln only assented to the levy on this understanding. But Lincoln died from an assassin's bullet and for some inscrutable reason the law was never repealed. Uncle Sam has been making money out of the whiskey business ever since. It is a good source of revenue. In these times of billion dollar congresses the government couldn't afford to lose as tidy a sum as the distillers and brewers pay into the treasury.

"The distillers and brewers aren't anxious to have the levy repealed. Uncle Sam gives them a measure of protection against the enforcement of certain state laws in return for the tax. They are willing to pay it."

Pence proposes to solve the problem by repealing the measure and substituting as a revenue producer the income tax. He has figured out that this will more than cover the receipts which the government gets from the internal revenue taxes. He contends that it will give the states a free hand in dealing with the liquor problems.

The former congressman is planning a non-partisan campaign of education to put his plan before the people. He will head a delegation which will meet Roosevelt and try to get him to endorse the scheme. He also will seek the approval of William Jennings Bryan.

WHOSE OX IS GORED?

There are some things happening in congress that are unintentionally but highly amusing. The fact that they are not meant to be amusing makes them all the more so. It is a case of involuntary sport, so to speak. The point just now in mind is the charge of which so much has been made in certain quarters, that the so-called "insurgents" had been doing business with the Democrats. The particular instance usually referred to in the charge is the combination between certain Democrats and Republicans in the house that resulted in the overthrow of Speaker Cannon. This outfit acquired a notion that Uncle Joe was going too far in the discharge of his duties as speaker and concluded to relieve him of some of the more arduous of them. In other words, they conceived and rather successfully carried out the scheme of setting bounds to his power, as much as to say, "thus far shalt thou go and no farther."

Then came an awful roar; and those Republicans who joined hands with the Democrats in doing the trick were denounced as being everything but good Republicans, all because they colluded with the Democrats to get what they could not get from the regulars.

Well, that might have been awfully wrong, but if so, does the rule work alike on all occasions? If it is treachery and everything else mean for the insurgents to work with the Democrats to get what the regulars refuse them, is it a like sin for the regulars to do business with the Democrats to get what the insurgents object to?

If so, there is a clear case against them, and it is the worst kind of a case too. It came to the surface in the senate when the railroad rate bill was up. It was a trade pure and simple. The regulars and insurgents got into a hopeless tangle on the bill, when lo! and behold, the regulars turned to the Democrats and said, "if you will go with us we will give you what you want," and what they wanted was to strike out three certain sections of the bill to which the Democrats were strongly opposed on the ground that these sections were inconsistent with the Democratic doctrine of states rights.

There you are, and what a sight it is! The leaders of the party of Lincoln conceding the very doctrine by which in Lincoln's day the Democrats of the south tried for four long years to destroy the government!

But then, of course, the regulars did not mean it that way. It was not their intention to surrender the sovereignty of the general government, and they did not, strictly speaking, do so, but simply waived it for the time being.

The point is that they were "doing business with the Democrats" the same as the insurgents had done, and incidentally made a concession against a fundamental principle of the Republican party. The insurgents did not go this far, except Uncle Joe be considered as the symbol of Republicanism. He and his manner of doing business were the sole issues then.

Of course, it will be conceded that all sides mean well and that the disagreements that have arisen are from honest differences of opinion. If the opinions of a Republican and Democrat happen to coincide, it is no disgrace to either, and it is better to follow honest opinion than party leaders. It is time that our legislators should meet to transact business for the people, rather than for a political organization. It is all right for both insurgents and regulars to "do business with Democrats," so far as they can do so consistent with the public good, which after all is the real test.

It is refreshing to read about how they are enforcing the anti-gambling law in Arizona. It begun with the firing of the officials for neglect in doing their duties under the law, the city marshal of Globe leading off with a fine of $200; also several of his deputies and a deputy sheriff with $50 each. The grand jury has indicted one of its own members for gambling and another member participated in an indictment of two of his sons for the same offense. That's the way to start the ball rolling. Get the men first who ought to do all the getting themselves and fall to do it. It is to the credit of these officers that they promptly pleaded guilty when brought to book, but it makes a bad showing for the city trustees for not enforcing the law.

CATARRH GOES

So Does Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Croup and Asthma

Rowley Drug Co. has a sensible remedy (money back if it fails) for catarrh, called Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me) which is a vaporized air, so antiseptic, that when it is breathed over the inflamed and germ-infested membrane, it kills all germ life, giving relief in two minutes, and cures catarrh.

The price, including hard rubber inhaler, is only $1.00. The hard rubber pocket inhaler will last a lifetime, so that should you need a second bottle of Hyomei, you can get it for 50 cents.

YAMI SCARED BUT HE GOT OVER IT

To Him It Looked Just Like Jail, But It Was Only $2.00 Fine

Yami, of the Japanese mission, was a much scared Jap yesterday, but after it was all over with he wore a broad smile. It happened that Yami rode a sidewalk on West Fourth street, and City Marshal Edwards caught him in the act. When Yami was arrested he was all woe. He was certain he had to go to jail forever and ever, or about that time. He was dejected through and through when City Recorder Willson looked severely over his specs and asked him if he were guilty or not guilty. Yami tremblingly admitted he was guilty.

"I shall fine you," said the recorder.

Yami brightened up, but his woe was not all gone, for he said, "I haven't got enough money to pay it." "The fine will be $2," said Willson. "Yami nearly fell out of the chair, he was so happy. Only two dollars! He shoved a hand into a pocket, pulled out two dollars and had the money on the desk before the judge could raise the price.

Writer Buys Orange County Home

Mrs. Lulu A. Myers, who has been living at Hollywood, and who is a contributor to the San Francisco Examiner, has purchased 40 acres 2 1/2 miles south of Garden Grove, to improve for a home. Her son and father will occupy the place with her.

For Mills Girls

On Saturday the Mills College girls were all guests of Miss Ethel Roper at a slumber party. The party including Miss Roper, her house guests, Misses Nickerson, Entler and Squires; Misses Shirley Thomas and Florence Mullinix, attended the Temple theater during the earlier part of the evening, and after supper was served at the Roper home on their return.

Sunday morning Misses Shirley Thomas and Florence Mullinix took the entire party, with Mesdames Mullinix and Richardson as chaperones, to Balboa where they spent Sunday and Sunday night at the Richardson cottage. They returned yesterday at noon after a delightful time at the seashore.

Misses Nickerson and Squires left in the afternoon for Redlands, but Miss Entler will visit here for two weeks, the guest of Misses Roper and Millward.

Visited By Old Friends

Dr. and Mrs. A. Fones of Hamilton county, Nebraska, who are touring California, are the guests just now of their old friend, W. J. Cozad, 317 South Sycamore. Last night a number of friends gathered at the Cozad home to enjoy the expected splendor of the comet during the moon's eclipse. In spite of the disappointment resulting from the clouded sky that shut out all signs of the eclipse phenomena taking place beyond their impenetrable masses, the assembled party of friends had a pleasant evening with genial conversation.

Dolly Tea

The girls of St. Elizabeths' Guild meet this evening with Miss Cooper to complete the plans for another of their delightful entertainments. It is to be a "dolly tea," given on next Thursday afternoon, in a lovely shady spot in the rear of the home of Mrs. Dr. Waffle on Seventh street. Tea and wafers will be served during the afternoon, and each guest purchasing a cup of tea will be presented with a pretty cup and saucer, a plate and a little dolly. Everyone is invited to come and enjoy this unique affair, which promises to be a great success.

Surprised Mrs. Decker

Mrs. W. S. Decker was the central figure in a surprise party given for her last Saturday afternoon by the Neighbors' Club. The ladies met at the home of Mrs. Charles Johnson, and, loaded with bags of fruit and other dainties, went in a body to the Decker home, completely surprising the lady of the house.

Only the feeling of regret at the near-by departure of Mrs. Decker for Whittier, where her husband has been installed as instructor of carpentry in the Whittier Industrial School, prevented the afternoon from being one of unalloyed pleasure. To testify to their regret and esteem, and also in remembrance of the birthday, which happened to fall on last Saturday, the ladies presented Mrs. Decker with a handsome gold crescent pin, prettily set.

Mr. Decker, whose birthday it also happened to be, arrived at home from Whittier while the party was in progress, but immediately fled from the presence of so many ladies.

Looked for the Comet

Mr. and Mrs. Judson A. Stevens of 601 Cypress avenue, entertained their brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Stevens, from their country home, at supper last night, later spending the evening together in anticipation of seeing the comet "at its best," as has been so freely predicted of late. Like everyone else, they were disappointed when the sky was obscured by clouds.

Santa Ana Farmers' Club

This club was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Elliott and daughter, Miss Elsie, at their home, 1911 North Main, Saturday evening. Little Margaret McElree and Arilla Cain sang and recited in a most charming juvenile fashion.

Messrs. C. S. Bennett and A. D. Bishop, respectively, discussed, in an interesting and instructive manner, the following subjects: "At What Age Do Walnut and Orange Trees Become Unprofitable?" and "What Crops Can Be Grown Profitably in Orange County?"

The next meeting is to be held June 18, with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wilcox, 2409 North Main, and will be in the hands of the ladies, Mrs. W. Lloyd Grubb, vice-president of the club, having charge.

Open Meeting of Monday Club

The Monday Club held an open meeting last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Duggan. The principal feature of the evening was an address by Rev. Mr. Hagan, a friend of Dr. Bruner. Rev. Hagan talked on "Japan and the Japanese," and his address was thoroughly enjoyable because of his comprehensive knowledge of his subject, he having lived in Japan many years as a missionary, thus getting in close touch with the Nipponese and their country. He will return to the Flowery Kingdom.

Mr. and Mrs. Duggan made the affair largely of a social nature, the guests including more than thirty of the Monday Club members and their wives. Other guests were Dr. and Mrs. Houghton and Miss Caroline Houghton. Refreshments were served in the latter part of the evening.

Those assisting the hostess in preparing and serving the delicious refreshments were Mesdames Nealley, Hankey and Langworthy, while Miss Caroline Houghton delighted the guests with some excellent music on the piano.

Art Club Chooses Officers

The Art Study Club held its last meeting of the year last night at the home of Mrs. Geo. S. Smith and elected officers who will serve during next season. They are Miss Wyant, president; Miss Gowdy, vice president; Mrs. Langworthy, secretary and treas-

Reports from secretary and treasurer were heard also a report from Miss Cubbison on the recent Woman's Parliament held in Santa Ana. The subject for study next year was discussed but not entirely settled. "American Illustrators" will be continued for the first lessons of the season and the executive committee will decide the remainder of the program. After the business session, Mrs. Padgham read part of an excellent paper previously given before the club. She also had a large exhibit of art pictures on display.

Canton Prize Banquet

Last night the members of Santa Ana Canton No. 18 and their ladies were treated to a sumptuous banquet and the pleasant memory of the evening will remain long with all those who partook of it. When the members of this Canton were planning to go to Long Beach the 16th of last month the ladies gave the promise that if the prize for the best drill was won by Santa Ana a big supper would be served; hence last night's supper.

The tables, spread in the spacious banquet hall were tastefully decorated with bouquets of purple sweet peas and California poppies. American flags adorned the chandeliers. About fifty sat down to the chicken pie supper. Captain Robert Squires acted as toastmaster and called upon the following who responded with excellent talks: J. Park Dougall of Los Angeles, Captain and Assistant Surgeon General P. M. I. O. O. F. Department of California; George Riley of Orange, Walter Tedford, C. W. Sheats, A. E. Bird, B. Uttley and Mrs. Uttley, Mrs. W. B. Tedford, and Mrs. Pyle of Westminster. Captain Squires then thanked the ladies who had labored well and earnestly to give their "boys" the reward they had earned.

LANDED HARD ON COUNTY VET

Supervisors Find It Necessary to Instruct Him to Enforce Law

Reported That Glanders Epidemic Has Assumed Alarming Proportions

That glanders has been in existence widespread in the southern end of the county has caused considerable alarm among stockmen. Complaints piled up with the supervisors that County Veterinarian W. S. McFarlane has been rather slow in enforcing the death penalty and in looking after the epidemic. This afternoon the Board of Supervisors passed a resolution notifying Dr. McFarlane to attend to the epidemic and enforce the ordinance.

After this resolution was passed, Louis Moulton of El Toro, appeared before the board and wanted to know what was going to be done about the glanders epidemic. Chairman Angle informed him of the resolution, and said:

"We have told him to enforce the ordinance or take the consequences."

Yesterday and today Deputy State Veterinarian Morrison and veterinarians from this county are in the El Toro district, and have directed the killing of several animals afflicted with the glanders.

Other Matters
The supervisors today gave W. H. Burnham, highway commissioner, leave of absence of thirty days, to go from the state.

Two bids were received for repairing West Chapman street bridge. They were C. McNeill, $4375; G. E. Preble, $4567. The bids were continued to June 8.

C. W. Hannah was the only bidder for painting the courthouse roof. He bid $120. The matter was continued to June 8, to get in the specifications a provision for cleaning off the old paint.

A. W. Everett of Huntington Beach and E. M. Nealley of Tustin, were elected members of the county board of education to succeed themselves, each for a two-year term.

The petition of Roper & Co. of Tustin to put a pipe across a street was granted, provided the street be put back in shape.

CONCERNING MR. SCOTT'S CANDIDACY

Anaheim Gazette: One of the amusing trivialities of the campaign is a report which has just popped loose to the effect that Assessor Scott had withdrawn from the contest for re-election to the office which he has so capably filled for three years and more past. Of course the report is quite unfounded, and nobody believed it from the start. Mr. Scott's friends declare he is the leading candidate in the field for assessor and that his chances for securing the nomination were never so bright. Certain it is that if painstaking and persevering work in office counts for anything, there exists little if any reason for his withdrawing from the race at this time. Scott's official record has been subject to gross attack, more so than was ever before the case in Orange county, but his published statements some weeks ago in this paper have gone far to disprove them and set them at naught. As he himself has said, a captious critic might find in the thousands of assessments made in this county an opportunity here and there to find fault with his valuations, but that this is true to any large extent, or that large landholdings have been undervalued, no one believes. In fact, valuations of the larger ranches have been notably increased the past year.

Mr. Scott is now at the busiest time of the year in his official duties, and will not be able to leave his office until the latter part of the campaign. That he is attending to the duties of his office, and is not neglecting them to advance his own political interests, is to his credit, but he is built that way. If he is to secure the nomination by neglecting his work, he does not desire, and will not ask it on such terms. That is just the kind of an official the taxpayers desire to keep in office. Mr. Scott is not out of the race—he is very much in it. Yet he is not out campaigning, for he has business in his office to attend to for the men who elected him assessor. That is the kind of an official the taxpayers desire to keep in office. Later on he will be at liberty to call upon his friends, and in the meantime he stands upon his record, well knowing it cannot be assailed successfully by any one in the county or out of it.

MISS HARRIMAN TO —WED ON THURSDAY

NEW YORK, May 24.—"The horseback romance" of Miss Mary Harriman and Charles Cary Rumsey will culminate on Thursday of this week in a wedding in the little church at Arden, near where the bride's father is buried.

For the last month a small army of dressmakers have been at work upon Miss Harriman's trousseau, the principal details of which are now known. Because she is still in mourning for her father, the trousseau will be plain, without billows of lace or elaborate bows, but none the less rich.

What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heartburn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver with indigestion, and dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at its formula will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of the following native American forest plants, viz., Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherry bark, Queen's root, Bloodroot, and Mandrake root.

The following leading medical authorities, among a host of others, extol the foregoing roots for the cure of just such ailments as the above symptoms indicate: Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Med. College, Phila.; Prof. H. C. Wood, M. D., of Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., Author of American Dispensary; Prof. Jno. M. Scudder, M. D., Author of Specific Medicines; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., Med. Dept. Univ. of N. Y.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., Author of Materia Medica and Prof. in Bennett Medical College, Chicago. Send name and address on Postal Card to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive free booklet giving extracts from writings of all the above medical authorities and many others endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient of which "Golden Medical Discovery" is composed. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. They may be used in conjunction with "Golden Medical Discovery" if bowels are much constipated. They're tiny and sugar-coated.

COTTON PLANS FOR IMPERIAL VALLEY

15,000 Acres to be Planted
This Year—Gins Installed
In Many Towns

The El Centro correspondence of the Los Angeles Times recently had the following interesting information as to the cotton interests of Imperial Valley:

"Conservative estimates now place the amount of land under cotton in Imperial Valley this season at about 15,000 acres. Previous figures based upon the quantity of seed available have run the probable acreage to from 20,000 to 30,000 acres; but it is now known that some of last season's seed was destroyed and a considerable quantity fed, so that those who have been keeping close tab on the situation believe that 15,000 acres is a fair estimate.

Eighty growers have signed up with the Imperial Valley Oil and Cotton Company, pledging their cotton seed for stock on the basis of a ton of seed per share. These pledges account for 10,000 acres. Several large cotton plantations have not yet signed up their acreage, so that the company is assured of practically the 15,000. Aside from this there are numerous small plantings which have not been reported.

"The Imperial Valley Oil & Cotton Company met yesterday and decided to order machinery at once for cotton gins at Brawley, Imperial, Westmoreland, Calexico, Holtville, Rockwood and Mobile, and an enlargement for the mill here. It will also order machinery for the cotton seed oil mill to be erected at El Centro. It is expected that this machinery will all be on hand by the middle of August so that it will be ready for handling the crop early in the fall.

"The present plans of the company include the establishment of four-stand seventy-saw gins at Brawley, El Centro, Calexico and Holtville, and two-stand gins at Imperial, Heber, Mobile and Rockwood.

"At El Centro an eighty-ton cotton seed oil mill will be erected of brick or tile. The total cost of buildings and machinery to be installed is about $60,000.

HONEYMOON TRIP ACROSS CONTINENT

Mr. and Mrs. John Stoerkel
Will Walk From Pacific to Pittsburg, Pa.

POMONA, May 24.—Clad in khaki suits and carrying strong walking sticks. Mr. and Mrs. John Stoerkel, scarcely out of their teens, arrived in Pomona yesterday morning, on the first day of a walk which is to carry them from Yuma to Pittsburg.

The young people are taking this novel trip as a sort of honeymoon, but admitted they had been married for but a short time. On the journey they are taking occasion to advertise Yuma, having been commissioned to do this by the Yuma Chamber of Commerce. They left the Arizona city May 6, and expect to arrive in Pittsburg, a distance of 3500 miles by their route, next December. They are making the journey by way of Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland, and thus across the country.

Mrs. Stoerkel, who is decidedly attractive, said she was enjoying the trip immensely. They are earning their living expenses while enroute by selling post cards.
